

Evelyn L. Pierson

JAMESTOWN — Evelyn L. Pierson, 88, a resident at the Hultquist Infirmary, died Saturday (April 29, 1995) at the infirmary.

A Jamestown resident most of her life, Mrs. Pierson was born June 9, 1906 in Perrysburg, a daughter of the late Carl A. and Ezzie Hyslip Brooks. On Sept. 28, 1926, she was married to Donald J. Pierson, who predeceased her Dec. 20, 1958.

Mrs. Pierson was a graduate of Cattaraugus High School, class of 1924. She graduated from the Jamestown School of Practical Nursing in 1953.

Prior to her retirement, Mrs. Pierson was employed as a licensed practical nurse by the former Jamestown General Hospital, WCA Hospital and Chautauqua County Department of Social Services. She also did private duty nursing for many years.

Mrs. Pierson was a life long member of the First Church of Christ, Scientist.

Surviving are two daughters, Ann P. Truitt and Lorinda Valone, both of Jamestown; one son, Pieter C. Pierson of Orange Park, Fla.; seven grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

She was predeceased by a sister, Janice Gardner, and a brother, Irwin Brooks.

Friends may call from 7 to 9 p.m. today at the Lind Funeral Home, 805 West Third St., where funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Tuesday with the Rev. Eldon H. Johnson, assistant chaplain of the Lutheran Social Services, officiating.

Burial will be in Little Valley Rural Cemetery.

The family suggests memorials may be made to the Lutheran Social Services, 715 Falconer St., Jamestown.