

Rev. S. B. Thompson, an aged Baptist minister, and a resident of this village for a great many years, died very suddenly at Perol Creek, Wyoming county, Thursday of last week. Last fall Mr. Thompson entered the Baptist home in New York, an institution provided especially for aged ministers and their families. At the time of his death he was traveling in the interest of the home. The deceased was 71 years of age. Funeral services were held Saturday, and the remains were interred in the village cemetery.